

Supporting Your Teen through the N-Level Results Release 2025

Dear Parents/Guardians,

The 2025 N-Level results will be released soon this Thursday, 18 Dec 2025 at 2:00pm. You are warmly invited to join your child/ward in school when he/she receives their results on the day.

Students will report to the school hall at 1.30 pm for a pre-release result briefing. Please be informed that students should be appropriately attired and groomed. Those in improper attire or poor grooming may not be allowed to collect their results.

While we await the results, let us also remember to celebrate their efforts, regardless of the results. We can show support for our teens through our words and actions that their grades do not define who they are.

Your support to your child during this milestone is important. Use this opportunity to have open conversations and guide them as they consider their next steps.
